

Mirrorplants

at the Dog and Bell...

For the next few weeks, at the Dog and Bell in Deptford (one of the best real ale pubs in SE London) there will be a small exhibition of Paul Clayton's Mirrorplant pictures.

You are cordially invited to a 'private viewing' from 6pm to 9pm on Saturday 7th May where you can talk to Paul about the pictures, even buy a card or two if you are taken. Invite friends, passing strangers, people you barely know from Facebook; all are welcome to a good pint and a look-see.

...plus the world unveiling of Paul's painting Jobcentre:2000AD

This is the beginning of a series of Jobcentre paintings created with the future in mind, using collage taken from The galaxy's favourite comic, especially in the the golden 1980's...

Need a map?
Turn over for details.

Paul's home on the web: www.soulchip.net

Email: paul.clayton@soulchip.net

The Dog and Bell, 116 Prince Street, Deptford, SE8 3JD

020 8692 5664

Look it up on Google, can't miss it.